				Since the very first days in Eden, temptation has been a very real part of our daily lives. Like in those early days, we are constantly pulled away from the truth that God has clearly given us by options that promise one thing, yet deliver another. Sin enters the picture every time we choose the lie, and when unchecked, eventually leads us downward into a spiral of bondage, guilt and shame. In this series we not only tell the truth about temptation, but reveal the truth about shame and condemnation, helping us break the cycle of sin that leads us back to the same old lies time and time again. The lure of Tough questions. Reasonable questions. The kinds of challenging questions you, or someone you know What does it take to win at life? A good education? A lucrative career? A loving family? Jesus has a lot

				Most Christians have experienced the "laundry list" phase of spiritual life, in which praying means giving God an agenda of needs to handle. How do you move to having real conversation with God?
				How do you hear what God is saying back to you? How can you make your experience of God being with you part of everyday life? In this study guide, Jan Johnson covers the disciplines of prayer and of practicing God's presence. Going deeper in these areas will help you to draw closer to God in and approach affect what you get out of your reading? What does it mean to "meditate" on Scripture?

				How can meditating on God's Word change you? In this study guide, Jan Johnson covers the disciplines of study and meditation. Going deeper into God's Word—learning to immerse yourself in God's mean? What would happen if you spent less? Or spoke less? What purpose is served by fasting? What simplicity and fasting. Leading a simple life can help you focus on what is truly important. Fasting can help you learn to hunger for the things that really matter. Going deeper in these areas will help you

					In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus laid out principles for a relationship with God that differed radically from anything people had ever heard- showing God's kingdom accessible not to the outwardly holy, but to the inwardly hungry. The sermon on the Mount reveals the heart qualities God desires in you.

					How often do we want something only to find out that it wasn't that great after all? Sometimes we ask God for things and if he doesn't deliver right away, we start questioning whether God really

					What does it mean to have a relationship with God? What does it look like? For a lot of us it's a hard
